ZOOM WORSHIP ON SUNDAY—10AM!

It was so good to see each other on Wednesday that we are going to try a simple worship experience with each other tomorrow, March 22, at our usual 10am time. Todd Barnes will share some music, Julie will lead a short meditation on Psalm 23, and we can enjoy the gift of seeing friendly and loving faces.

If you are new to Zoom, this is an online format where you can talk to and see each other live. To join us, what you need is a computer with a camera and speakers (almost every laptop or tablet works great for this). You can also use a smart phone, although then you can only see one person at a time, but it still works. Here is a short video tutorial on how to join a Zoom meeting:

If this will be your first experience on Zoom, please try to join the meeting around 9:45am to download Zoom and try it out. Meredith says: I figured it out, so you can too!

To Join EPC Zoom Meeting with your computer on March 22 by 10am, go to the highlighted website and follow the prompts. Phone instructions are below that.

Phil GebbenGreen is inviting you to a scheduled Zoom meeting.

Jenya has recorded two version of Psalm 23. The first is the hymn, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is." You can look up all the words online; the first stanza is: The King of Love my shepherd is, whose goodness faileth never; I nothing lack if I am his and he is mine forever.

The second recording is Jenya playing and singing, "Shepherd Me, O God." It's stunning. Feel free to join Jenya on the chorus in the privacy of your own home: Shepherd me, O God, beyond my wants, beyond my fears, from death into life.

ZOOM NEWS

We plan to continue the pattern of this week, with a Zoom gathering on Wednesday evenings at 7pm and a worship Zoom gathering at 10am on Sunday mornings. All Zoom meetings will use the same invitation link as above.

- Bible Study will meet on Zoom at 6:30pm this Sunday, March 22. BYOB: Bring your own Bible. The texts are Ezekiel 37:1-14, Psalm 130, Romans 8:6-11, and John 11:1-45 (Lazarus).
- Contemplative Prayer plans to move to Zoom on Tuesday at 3pm.

OTHER NEWS

- Warner Gunsell was admitted to Methodist Hospital in St Louis Park this past week with pneumonia. He is confused but doing much better with intentional treatment and appreciates our love and care.
- The sister of our custodian, Sol Guevara, has tested positive for COVID-19. Blessings to Sol and her family. This means that Sol is taking at least weeks of paid leave, and that we are looking for someone to do about three hours of cleaning twice per week as a temporary replacement over the coming weeks. If you know someone who is interested, please have them contact me at pastorphilgg@gmail.com.
- The flooring installers are here at church on Saturday morning skim-coating the cement floors that were denuded of tile last night by the asbestos abatement crew. When you all show up at church again, we should have brand new floor tile!

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd. I lack nothing.

He lets me rest in grassy meadows; he leads me to restful waters; he keeps me alive.

He guides me in proper paths for the sake of his good name.

Even when I walk through the darkest valley, I fear no danger because you are with me.

Your rod and your staff—they protect me.

You set a table for me right in front of my enemies.

You bathe my head in oil; my cup is so full it spills over!

Yes, goodness and faithful love will pursue me all the days of my life, and I will live in the Lord's house as long as I live.
