Midweek Update – May 30, 2018

MUSIC APPRECIATION!

In worship last Sunday, almost the entire service consisted of people telling stories about how music has shaped and supported our lives and our faith. We laughed, we cried, we grew closer to each other and gave thanks to God for the beautiful gift of music and the musicians and teachers and worship leaders who have blessed us at EPC and throughout our lives.

If you want to listen to this service (coming soon) or others, please visit our website at <http://epchurch.org/sermon-archive.html>

GRACE = GRATITUDE

My friend Kara's church is doing a yearlong focus on GRACE, and she asked several of her friends to reflect with her on this subject. Probably not surprisingly, I (Phil) had a whole bunch of thoughts, but repeated here is my simplest insight:

>>GRACE and GRATITUDE share the exact same root word. Essentially grace means living in gratitude. Doesn't that seem worth spending a year on?<<

BACKWOODS CLEAN-UP THIS SUNDAY!

To help and encourage our neighbor Dave Busch move years-worth of stuff off the NW portion of our backwoods, several of us are going up there on Sunday to haul and clean up. If you are willing to help out, bring some good shoes, gloves, and bug spray!

The Backwoods team is also planning a late-June gathering of neighbors to introduce ourselves to them and tell them about our plans for our property.
