

Edgumbe Presbyterian Church

Midweek Update

April 10, 2019

In this issue:

- Greetings from the church office
- Lenten worship: How am I being changed right now?
- Pastors' schedule & Holy Week worship
- Labyrinth retreat at EPC April 13

GREETINGS FROM THE CHURCH OFFICE

Pastor Phil is out of the office today, so just a quick update on the upcoming week.

LENTEN WORSHIP

From now until Easter Sunday, we worship together using the beautiful music of Holden Evening Prayers and hearing congregational friends reflect on the question: "How am I being changed right now?" Leading worship and speaking this week will be Pastor Julie.

PASTORS' UPCOMING SCHEDULE

- Phil will be off a week in early May because the Enneagram Prison Project is flying him to Lisbon, Portugal (!!!) for a European Enneagram conference.

HOLY WEEK

Maundy Thursday potluck and worship, 5:30pm on Thursday, April 18. Easter Sunday 10am worship is Sunday, April 21.

LABYRINTH RETREAT AT EPC

"Be Still an Instant and Go Home"

Join fellow companions in an afternoon retreat, as we center ourselves in a contemplative walk on an indoor labyrinth, led by Michelle Lesley. We will practice sacred stillness, sacred movement and sacred community. ~ A pilgrimage without distance~

Saturday April 13, 1:30-4:30pm

Edgumbe Presbyterian Church

2149 Edgumbe Rd, St Paul

Requested donation of $30, but of course everyone is welcome regardless of ability to pay.

Please RSVP to: mlesley827@gmail.com Anticipate walking in your socks!