Romeo & Juliet in the Backwoods

Romeo and Juliet will be performed in our backwoods at 7 pm this Thursday through Sunday (August 18, 19, 20, 21). This performance is directed by Madeline Wall, who also directed the show last summer in the backwoods. All tickets are pay-what-you-will, ranging from $5 to $50. Blankets and benches are provided for seating but we brought our own folding chairs and were able to use them in the seating area. Liz and I went for Opening Night last week and really enjoyed the performance. Tickets can be booked online (Ticket info) or purchased with cash or Venmo at the door.

Check in Session Meeting:

1. The St. Paul Conservatory of Music is going through a 12 month transition period and are looking for space in which to continue their basic lessons for grade school age through senior citizens during that time period. Executive Director, Mary Larew, toured the rooms upstairs in the Montessori School, the Sanctuary, the parlor and the library with Jay McGregor and was pleased by what she saw. B & G are in discussion with her about the hours and the space they would need for these lessons if they were held at EPC.

2. Building and Grounds:

a. Window Repair: The replacement windows for the ones broken in the Montessori School should be here in about 2 weeks. Elders Jay McGregor and Rich Schiferl will install them.

b. Minnesota Waste Wise Grant : The Grant included plans to purchase a portable dishwasher for the kitchen, which will be about $800.00. They are also investigating the purchase of a new refrigerator which would be more energy efficient.

c. Building Upkeep Help: B & G would like people to report things that need to be addressed in the upkeep of the church building.

3. Backwoods:

1. The July 28, 2022, music concert was well attended with approximately 50-75 people in attendance.
2. The theater group that presented a play last year in the backwoods will present Romeo and Juliet for the next two weeks.

4. Music:

1. Jenya Trubnikava, Carol Schweickerdt, and Phil have been searching for a baby grand piano to replace the old upright in the sanctuary. It has been determined that one costing a minimum of $9,000-$10,000 would be suitable for our needs. Fundraising for the piano will begin in February of 2023.

2. Organ Repair: The organ has been examined and it was determined that there would be considerable cost to repair.
